

Preventing Workplace Harassment and Discrimination in the UK

PROTECT YOUR WORKFORCE WITH TRAINING THAT'S BUILT FOR COMPLIANCE AND DESIGNED TO STREAMLINE COMPLEX MANDATES.

A workplace free from discrimination, harassment, and victimization isn't just a legal requirement in the UK—it's a powerful driver of culture, innovation, and business performance.

Compliance is only the starting point. Real change happens when training builds empathy, awareness, and accountability, creating environments where employees feel safe to contribute, grow, and thrive. SHIFT's courses are built to do exactly that—engaging learners in a way that shifts mindsets, changes behavior, and supports lasting cultural and bottom-line impact.

TRAINING OVERVIEW

Designed to help organizations meet their responsibilities under the Equality Act 2010, this training equips employees and supervisors with practical tools to prevent and address harassment, discrimination, and victimization. Learners gain strategies to recognize, respond to, and report inappropriate behavior—empowering them to contribute to a positive workplace culture.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Self-paced eLearning with interactive scenarios and reflection points.

- Identifying, preventing, and responding to harassment, discrimination, and victimization
- Recognizing early warning signs and how to intervene and report
- Understanding the difference between intent and impact
- Empowering employees with bystander and prevention skills

WHITE GLOVE CUSTOMIZATION & IMPLEMENTATION

Industry's most advanced customization - tailored to your brand, your people, your policy.
With dedicated support team for seamless implementation.

MEETS EQUALITY ACT 2010

Under the Equality Act 2010, UK employers must take reasonable steps to prevent sexual harassment. The EHRC advises regular, tailored training for all employees.
